Hei Whakataki Introduction

Through its support of the Māori media sector, Te Māngai Pāho aims to improve the outcomes of the Maihi Karauna, the Crown’s strategy for Māori language revitalisation. This includes ensuring New Zealanders value te reo Māori as an essential part of their national identity.

The Crown’s strategy for Māori language revitalisation has three audacious goals for 2040:

- Goal 1: more than 85% of New Zealanders will value te reo Māori as a key part of national identity;
- Goal 2: more than 1,000,000 New Zealanders will have the ability and confidence to talk about at least basic things in te reo Māori;
- Goal 3: more than 150,000 Māori aged 15 and over will use te reo Māori as much as English by 2040.

In support of these goals, Te Māngai Pāho measures New Zealanders’ attitudes toward te reo Māori with the KoPA model; an adaptation of the theoretical ZePA model developed by Professor Rawinia Higgins and Dr. Poia Rewi. Attitudes are segmented into three core categories: kore (zero); pō (passive) and awatea (active). The goal is to ‘right-shift’ the population along the continuum, into awatea. When investing in content, Te Māngai Pāho seeks to understand the contribution that content will make to the Crown’s strategic goals and right-shifting its target audience.
